From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church Mouse

Don't you love kids? I love the innocence of children! I love the words that they get a little confused about. I remember when I was growing up a couple of years ago...there was a man on TV Call Art Mouseletter. He had a little segment on his show that he called, "Mousekins say the Funniest Things" I was thinking about that the other day...I remembered when little Chelsea Churchmouse told me that she had seen an obstacle illusion. If you have ever worked with human-type kids, you know that it is a big deal to the children to be the person who was chosen to run the overhead projector as the others sing... or to do anything to help. Once, little Caleb Mouseling wanted to get ahead of the crowd, so he asked me 1st thing in the morning, "Can I run the rejecter today?" Then I remember little Melvin Churchmouse, who loved to come by my place and have 2 pretzels. I loved to hear him ask, "Uncle Chucky, can I please have a prince!" How can you turn down a question like that! Then there was the little Jayden Fieldmouse who was so excited that his little brother had "hatched out of my mom's belly." Kids are just genuine...they are who they are...no pretending. And they are, by nature, trusting.

The Bible tells us that we should come as children. It is only with a child-like faith, being totally honest with God about who we are, and fully trusting in Him for our every need, that we can have a relationship with our heavenly father. I just love children...they say the funniest things...but sometimes they show us the most important things.

Speaking of kids, this past Sunday, the third and fourth grade Sunday School Class was busy again...They were helping the Greeters greet human-types at the front door. I especially enjoyed the Candy...I found one on the floor that was "mint" for me!

I'm glad you are here. Hey! Do something good for someone this week!
