From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church Mouse

Just a few weeks ago some of our younger human-types were involved in the county livestock show. I always go to that...with all that hay around, I find relatives I never even knew I had! But I also enjoy the events. As a mouse I am always amazed at how those animals can train their humans to do such things!

One of my favorite things is the horse show... especially the barrels. It is wild and crazy! I am amazed at the skill of the little human-types and the high level of training the horses display.

I’ve been thinking about something...

(1) The kids that ride these huge horses really inspire me. I understand being smaller than everyone around, and sometimes it scares me...but they don’t seem to be afraid at all! It is very important that they follow through with the drill, even if the horse misses a barrel or pole. This was a real showing of discipline and perseverance (that big word just means “sticking with it”) as the riders return to finish the drill. “Sticking with it” also trains the horse in what it should do. No matter how humiliating it may seem to the riders, they always go back and take the horses through the complete drill. Sometimes life is tough, and we just want to quit. Instead of quitting, we should learn from these riders...get up, dust off your jeans, and get back on the horse!

(2) I love horses. They are so-o-o BIG! Horses show a picture of true biblical meekness. “Meekness” is just another way to say “power under control”...kinda like my hero, Mighty Mouse...oops! Now where was I? Oh, yes...Show horses are obviously strong, fast and powerful animals. But when the bridle is put in their mouths, the power begins to be controlled by the human-type, the rider. Meekness is like that. When Christ is our trainer, his bridle and bit are put in our mouths, and his power over us transforms what we can do into things that we never could have imagined. Power over sin, perseverance, victory over self...these all become possible with Christ in the saddle. When you think of it this way, it puts a whole new perspective on the verse, “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.” When we give up control and let him put his bit in our mouth, He, in turn, gives us even more strength.

I’m kinda glad that mouse bits have not been invented, but I’m gonna let God’s Holy Spirit control me anyway!

I’m glad you are here today! I hope you can bring someone with you next time. If you are visiting with us, in the words of one of the relatives I met at the show barn... “Y’all come back re-e-e-eal soon.
