"Give Us Clean Hands"

*Could this be the day I was created for,
For such a time as this?
Lord, take all of me, a living sacrifice,
Dedicated wholly to You.*

*It's all about You, Lord;
Take my life it's Yours.
It's not about me, Lord:
In You I am secure!*

*Take this broken vessel make it new again,
Then I'll pour out my life at Your feet once again.

Senior Scholarship

All seniors who are actively involved at First Baptist are eligible for our church's Senior Scholarship. This one-time gift is given to specific graduating seniors on behalf of the church in recognition of the senior's active role at First Baptist. This gift is for the purpose of assisting the student in their further educational pursuits and will be sent directly to the school the senior will be attending next year. To apply, all active seniors must complete the scholarship application, available in the church office. This must be turned back in to the church office by May 21, 2010. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of three factors: completion of scholarship application, quality of answers on application and Sunday School attendance.

(Anyone desiring to contribute to this scholarship should make checks out to First Baptist Church and write "Senior Scholarship" on both the check and the offering envelope.)

Flowers are given today by Jerry, Sherlyn, and Clark Brooks in loving memory of their fathers and grandfathers.

From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church Mouse

This week I was thinking about the Model Prayer...no, it is not the prayer that says "help me to look good in that dress or shirt." (get it! "model" ☺ Enough funny stuff... Where was I? Oh yes, the Model Prayer...some call it "The Lord's Prayer." Have you ever noticed that Jesus says, "forgive us our debts as we forgive"? My mouseness! I had never thought about that before. I started thinking about how Millie Mouse had told a story about my family...it was a true story, but it was not one to be told. I remembered how some of the human-types in the church where I used to be their churchmouse didn't appreciate my nosiness or the way I used the secretary's computer...I ask you, how else is a mouse going to write a column? I have looked... they don't put used computers in the trash anymore...some talk about green something or the other. As I started thinking about how many folks had done things to hurt me or insult me, or just ignore me...and I am talking just mice... let alone all the human-types...I began to make a list. I found an old toilet paper roll that was thrown away before all the paper was gone. (When you are a mouse, sometimes you have to use what you've got!) I began to make a list, and before I knew it, my list stretched three feet...human feet! I started thinking about it. You know, I've had sort of a bitter feeling about some of those things. Maybe that bitterness is affecting my relationship with God and with others!

What could I do? Silly me! Do what it says: FORGIVE. Forgiveness doesn't mean that you will immediately forget (that might take a little time), but it does mean that you have every intention to have a forgiving heart about those situations and those folks. I was thinking, I have heard the word, "REVIVAL", used in Church a lot. I always thought it had to do with folks like ol' Deacon Mousingham who would fall asleep during the sermon, and revive during the invitation! But now I think I understand. If we all started forgiving, all the Christians would get along (I think they call that "unity", or something like that!). What a difference that would make in this country if just the Christians would get along. I think the whole Church would revive... my mouseness...and lots more human-types would want to know Jesus. Now that would be REVIVAL. What do you think?

I've already started forgiving folks. If you have the Holy Spirit in you, it's kinda hard to keep grudges anyway! So, if there is someone that you need to forgive, try forgiving them. You might like the way it makes you feel...and you might discover that you have more friends...and most of all...it might just improve your prayer life!

I'm glad you are here today. Hey, do something good for someone this week!
