From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky

I have been gone for the week...an unexpected vacation. I got into a box that Cathy Whitfield took home with all of her Senior stuff. When I got to her house, I managed to get out, and made it to another box. It was confusing enough to find myself in a house when I am only used to the church, but I had no idea they were about to take a vacation, and the box I was in was going too! It was great fun...although the car was a little crowded from bicycles, cameras, FOOD and "stuff". Anyway I am glad to be home.

I heard that I really missed something great on Sunday evening. My great grandfather Benny Goodmouse used to play "Yackety Sax" on a kazoo that he found in a dumpster, but I hear that he could not hold a candle to the saxophone player who played Sunday night...he really did play "Yackety Sax"...Wow! I am sorry I missed it...and I just love banjo playing and guitar playing! You never know what you will miss. If you missed, like I did...I hear that you and I missed a blessing. But most of all I missed fellowshiping with all of you.

You know...I just love this time of year! The little miceys have all been hyper and ready for school to be out, Mrs. Mouse-steen, our teacher has almost pulled out her whiskers, and the end of year activities have just about worn Mama Mouse to a frazzle.

It is easy to understand why so many human-types think of Summer as a vacation time...we all need a change of pace (usually it is a slower one!). Please take the advice of a mouse that has been around a long time...in mouse years, that is! Don't take a vacation from God. God is always there for us...no matter where we are or what we are doing...God is faithful.

I hope you enjoy your summer "vacation," but spend time with God and with your Christian family at church...I think it was Paul that said that coming together at church gives us the opportunity to "Spur" (in the western sense, not the basketball sense!) each other on...and, of course, don't forget your family at home! Bring them with you, and let's giddy-up and go!

I hope to see you a lot around here this summer.

Once again, Congrats grads!

I'm glad you are here today...Hey!...Do something good for someone this week!
