Budget Packets ARE OUT!

Once again it is time to begin the budgeting process for the 2010-2011 Church year.

Committee chairpersons, organizational leaders and ministry leaders who received their budget request forms are encouraged to submit ALL anticipated expenses. Extra budget forms are available from the church office during regular office hours.

Please submit all budget requests to Donna Fanslau no later than Friday, July 16.

The first budget work session is scheduled for Tuesday, August 3, at 6:30 p.m.

The flowers today are given by Carroll and Martha Heffington in loving memory of their son, Kirk Tatum.

May God console you at this time and bless you from above and may you find new strength and hope in His unfailing love . . . to Darla Petty in the recent loss of her step-father, Melvin Perreira.

Free In The USA

On the Fourth of July, I raised the flag,
 As I spoke with love and pride:
 "I'm blessed to be an American," I said,
 To two friends who stood by my side.
 One was my neighbor,
 who lives next door,
 He's a citizen, like me.
 The other, a visitor from a hard,
 oppressed land,
 Far across the sea.
 "My flag stays in its box this year,"
 Said my neighbor, boiling mad.
 "The terrible shape this country's in,
 The future looks nothing but bad.
 "Taxes, scandal, indifference and crime,
 On our land like a giant stain."
 My visitor said, "We have all that,
 and worse,
 But it's against the law to complain."
 My neighbor looked startled,
 but not subdued;
 Then he started in on the Press:
 "There's nothing but bad news;
 the headlines are bleak."
 (It gets me down, too, I confess.)
 "Our news is all good," said my visitor.
 "It's just how you'd like to be.
 We know what our government
 wants us to know;
 Our press is controlled, you see."
 My neighbor spun 'round and
 marched toward his house,
 And here is the end to my story:
 The next time we saw him,
 he was out in his yard,
 Proudly raising Old Glory.

By Chucky Church Mouse

I hope you didn't miss the melting pot breakfast. Yum! I'm afraid I may have gained at least an ounce! It was terrifimouse!

I am so thankful that I am an American mouse. Even being a mouse in other places does not compare. I hope you human-types realize how blessed you are to live in the USA.

Each year my family and I move to our summer home...Don't tell anyone, but it is in the Church van. We don't bother anyone and we get to go on vacation every time a group takes a trip...pretty ingenious, huh? This past week I had the privilege of taking two trips. On Tuesday, I went with Christy and the children for their Fun in the Sun. Those kids took a trip to the nursing home and played BINGO with some of the residents, and passed out cards they had made. You would have been very excited to see the kids giving and showing love to the residents at the Oaks. Thanks to Christy and all of the Adults who helped.

On Thursday, I spent a lot of time laughing as I went with the Y² (you say it, "Y squared", standing for Yesterday's Youth) to Fredericksburg to eat out and see a show at the Rock Box Theatre. My kids and I had so much fun. I just love seeing God's people enjoy being around one another.

Thanks to the choir for leading us in a "Celebration of Freedom" today. They have worked hard for months on the music. I wonder if I could find a denim shirt for a mouse???

Have a great afternoon with you family. I hope you will be here next week. You never know what you will miss when you are not here!

Hey! Do something good for someone this week.

Thank You!

I would like to thank all of the people who donated money to help the 5th. and 6th. grade GA's go to camp. This would not be possible without your generous donations! I know this is an experience of a lifetime for these girls ... including me.

With your prayer and support, I know these girls' lives will be changed forever. For that I am eternally grateful.

I pray for God's Blessings for each of you.

In Christ's Love,
Annabel Nelson
