From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church Mouse

It is so-o-o-o hot! I have had to spend time indoors...and you know...with the hole in the worship center roof...I have had to change my daily runs...it's even too hot in there!

As I was running by the front glass doors last week I noticed that the grounds were once again getting a "hair cut." I'm not sure but I think it was James Worrell this time. With all these human-types working on the lawn, it is hard for me to keep up. Thanks James...and if I missed any one let me know...well, let the office know...I'll find out. I have my sources!

Did you get to hear the mission trip report last Sunday night.? I was so excited to hear about all the work they did. But the best part was that people who had never given their heart to Jesus did..even one of our own. That's what missions should be about. We do good things, but the reason that we do them is because God has saved us from sin and hell...and we want others to know Him, too. Thanks to Ken Snowden who really has a heart for missions, and puts these trips together...hope you get out of the hospital soon, Ken!

Happy Independence Day! I'm glad that I live in this great country, and I am glad that God has allowed me to scurry around this church with all of you. It's a great place to be.

Don't forget to come for the special business meeting on Wednesday, July 8. Come and hear what the plans are for getting back into the buildings

I'm glad you are here today! Hey! Do something good for someone.
