From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church Mouse

As I was scurrying around this week, I noticed a young lady who had been given a job at a local establishment. Her job was to clean a metal fence with a wire brush so that it could be painted. My thoughts went back to Tom Sawyer and his fence painting antics. This girl had the same problem Tom had. She didn't want to be doing the job. She would scrub a little...wipe her brow...scrub a little...look at her watch...scrub a little...look at a fingernail that she had messed up...you get the picture! I came back in about 45 minutes...and...you guessed it! She was still working on the same 6 inches that she had started on. I have run on this fence for a many times, and I know that the rust is not that thick.

The problem was that she was not really interested in painting the fence. Had I been her friend, I would not have wanted to be a part of that job. It looked very boring. At least Tom was able to talk someone into helping him!

I got to thinking about it. When I need to do something for the Lord, do I just "piddle around", hoping that the job will go away, do I complain about having to do it, or do I work at it with interest and joy. If we are lazy about our commitments...if we don't make an effort to live for Jesus...If we just don't care...how will others know how fantasti-mouse it is to have Jesus in our hearts?

How about you? What have you done for the Lord lately? Not just physical work, but whatever He wants you to do. How did you respond? "Not me, Lord" or "Here I am Lord." Joy doesn't mean that everything is rosy; it just means that you are happy to be used by God... whatever He has asked you to do!

I'm glad you are here today! How about inviting someone to come with you next week? Hey! Do something good for someone.
