Introduction of New Deacons

Leader: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: "Love your neighbor as yourself." All the law and the prophets hang on these two commandments. (Matthew 22:37-40)

People: Do not conform...to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. (Romans 12:2)

Deacons: Lord, take my life as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to you. This is our spiritual worship. (Romans 2:1 adapted)

Leader: There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men. (1 Corinthians 12; 4-6 adapted)

People: Lord, help us to reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God. Help us become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. (Ephesians 4:13 adapted)

Leader: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men. You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

People: In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise you Father in heaven. (Matthew 5:13-16)

From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky Church
Mouse

I missed Bro. Ricky on Sunday. I'm glad he's back. I sure did enjoy Ted Gross's sermon...hey...are you going to the Burnet Llano Baptist Association's Annual meeting. I'm gonna try to stow away somewhere.

This week I saw a couple of folks up to something... First, I saw Bob Quisenberry working on a rail that will keep people from falling when they go up and down the steps in the Worship Center...that is a great thing, but I can think of a better use...I can just see it now: a new slide attraction for the mouse population...like Six Flags over the Steps! The only problem is that big pretty thing on the end...it really hurts when you slide into it! Thanks Bob...Oh, yes...It looks great, too!

I also saw Doug Sullivan bringing in some kind of shelf with little cubby holes. I thought it was the new mouse condos that I have been dreaming about...I thought could this be great condos and six flags? ...wow! But no...He made it so that Bro. Doug (Burton) could store some instruments... Thanks Doug (Sullivan)...but, if you could think about the condo idea...I would be very appreciative!

I caught a ride with Bro. Doug and Linda last Saturday (no, they didn't see me...Linda doesn't like anything that has four or more legs and crawls on the floor...except dogs)... Anyway...where was I...oh, yes! We went to the Burnet County Kids Day Out. I also saw Judy Wittekiend, Joy Bis-cotto, Annabel Nelson, Jack Robertson, and Dave Thrane. Lots of kids came by the booth where they played a game made by Doug Sullivan...he's sure been busy lately!...and were told about KidZone, TweenZone, and Upward Basketball. I was sweating by the time I got home, but those bright shining faces of kids playing made it all worthwhile.

This is Friday when I am writing this...so this has not happened yet, but things are getting underway for the youth fifth quarter (after the football game). I have seen some folks like Cathy Whitfield really working hard on these events...I hope it all goes well! Hey, let me know who else is involved in this! The Deacons have been working on the Annual Widow's banquet for this Saturday night...hopefully, I will get the scoop for you on that big event, next time.

I'm glad you are here today! Wouldn't you like to see more people here, too. Invite someone next time! And Hey! Do something good for someone this week!

Chucky

Oops! I apologize to Margaret & Doug Sullivan for the misprint in last week's bulletin. The flowers should have read: "The flowers on September 27 were given by Doug and Margaret Sullivan in honor and celebration of Zula Caperton's 96th Birthday."
