Last Saturday's widow's banquet was stu-pend-mouse, fabu-mouse and even had some great cheesy stuff. Thanks Deacons for doing such a great thing! I only remember three names: the Fawcetts did the chicken and Vickie Herrera did the cheesy potatoes, and Donna Jones did desserts...I KNOW that there are others who made this thing go...especially the deacons and their wives...Thanks! Please forgive this little mousey mind for forgetting all of your names!

This past Wednesday as I was making my run around the buildings...looking for crumbs...I happened to come upon Lanny Lindsey's class of 4-6th grade boys. When I stopped to see what was going on, I found that a young man gave his heart to Jesus during KidZone/ TweenZone. And the cool thing about it is that the other boys helped him to know what to do to be saved...yippee!...uh...that's "Praise the Lord" in Mouse-talk! Over the past few weeks, quite a few teenagers who are involved in our youth program have also given their hearts to Jesus. I don't remember how many... there goes that pea-sized brain again..., but at least three... Anyway...I think it is Mouse-terful that folks around here are learning and understanding what it means to have a relationship with Jesus. Pray that they can continue to learn how to follow Jesus.

Have you ever given your heart to Jesus...It's easy. Just think of the baptisms you see today as pictures. We have to die to our old way of life (going under the water shows us a picture of being buried) then, just like Jesus rose again, we come to life again as a new person (coming out of the water gives the picture of resurrection, or coming to life again). You can know Him, too...

God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son to die for you. And anyone who will believe in Jesus will be able to have this eternal life. It is like a new life...like being born all over again...Ain't...oops... isn't God good?

I'm glad you are here today! Wouldn't you like to see more people here, too. Invite someone next time! And Hey! Do something good for someone this week!
