From my hole in the wall...

With all of the Thanksgiving stuff (no pun intended...well maybe some!) the human types are running around the office trying to get everything done...so I've got to hurry and take advantage of the time I have to run across Bettie's desk and type it in before she comes back and starts on the newsletter...if I get it in soon enough, she won't edit me for space again!

The Thanksgiving dinner was great. The Stones looked so excited...wow! 100 years! I saw Charlie "Supervisor" Barker and Barbara "Workhorse" Barker, Sheri "The One Who Called Me Chunky" Halliburton, and Chris "Bobcat" Lamb helping Van and Mark set up tables. Leona Chamberlain and Ester Pogue took care of details on getting the Stones here...Wow! 100 years... God is Good ALL THE TIME! Ruby "Emeril" May and Debbie "On a Roll" Plevan headed up the food details, Sherilyn "Divine Design" Brooks made sure everything was decorated, Donna "Dorothy" Daricek and Lois "Much Sweeter than Her Name" Lemmond helped with setup, and Cathy "Have Icing, will Travel" Whitfield made the Birthday cake...yum! Thanks to all of you who helped clean up and put away...you human types are great.

Speaking of food...was I speaking of food? I'm always speaking of food...I am so impressed with Lisa Anderson and her Wednesday night crew...I am amazed at how she puts together such great meals for the kids and workers on a shoestring budget.

...Last Tuesday, I was napping next to the bus shed...enjoying the sunshine...when all of a sudden I heard such a clatter...I sprang from my nap to see what was the matter...then what to my sleepy eyes should appear but Matt Brown, Aimee, and yes the little dears...Actually, they took the bus and van for a much needed bath, scrubbed the windows and cleaned the inside. Now the Bus and the van are sparkling like new. Now, I know that they would prefer me not to mention it, but I thought that was a pretty awesome way to spend Thanksgiving week!

Main Street Bethlehem is coming! Are you involved? There is a place for everyone, but please watch where you are walking over there...the nomadic remnant of my family is still roaming around.

I'm glad you are here today! Happy Thanksgiving! Invite someone next time! And...Hey! Do something good for someone this week!

Chucky
