From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky

It's just not right! My country Mouse Cousins live in the Middle East. Their names are Isaiah and Sarah Mousenstein. In the Middle East it is very rugged land...in some places it is like a desert and others like a jungle. They have done nothing to harm anyone...keeping to themselves... but recently they were removed from their homes for the sake of progress...

Now I know that if you are a Mousenstein...or even Churchmouse...you are not always welcome by human-types. Ken Snowden and Larry Firestone showed us just how unwelcomed mice can be this week. They cleaned the eastern parking lot...yes...you guessed it...the Mousensteins were living right in the Middle East Parking Lot...It was back at Christmas time that they were displaced from their home in Bethlehem when others cleaned Main Street Bethlehem. Their thought was to move back to their homeland over by the camel stall, but intelligence sources have said that Snowden and Firestone may be attacking the Main Street Bethlehem next...and when the weed eaters and lawnmowers get started there is little hope for a mouse family. Until we find a place for this displaced family, they will be living with my family in an undisclosed part of the church. Please ease up on the traps during this crisis time. In the mean time, I'll have to admit that the parking lot does look good! Thanks men...you have improved the looks of the Middle and Far East parking lot 100%.

KidZone has completed the year! I think there were over 70 kids here. Thanks leaders for all you did...I think you have a leadership team meeting on Wednesday at 5:30...I hear that there will be pizza, so I will probably be in the background!

I'm glad you are here today! I hope to see you next Sunday (bring a friend). Hey! Do something good for someone! Chucky Church Mouse
