From my hole in the wall...

By Chucky

This past week, as I was doing my usual run through the Church buildings, I noticed some unusual things going on. Did you come to the reception for the graduates? Wow! It was great! I just loved going around and looking at the stuff that was on the tables...of course I had to find times when no one was watching the tables...we mice are not very welcomed creatures on tables of any kind... anyway...where was I...oh, yes! I hear that Cathy Whitfield, Ruby May, and Sherlyn Brooks had a whole bunch to do with getting everything set up, decorated and ready to go. The cake was mouse-terful...I heard...not that I got any!...Cathy also took lots of pictures and set up the display in the foyer of the Worship Center. My, oh my! Has she been busy! Thanks ladies and to the Whitehead "BBQ machine"...yum! Thanks Eddie for barbecuing for the graduates and their families. I love what you guys put out...the only problem is that there is hardly ever anything left over in the garbage cans for me and my family.

Speaking of hard workin' folks in our fellowship...have you seen the new signs? Last week I noticed that Bob²...that is Bob Quisenberry and Bob Johnson were out fixing up some of the eaves of the Family Life Center on a really high lift...I scurried up to the youth room so that I could see, but by the time I got there, they were coming down and heading over to the Worship Center cranking up the lift again. This time I saw them...and an unidentified person who was on the roof...apparently afraid of heights, because all I could see was the rope he was holding...anyway...They put up both signs, too. You guys are great. Now people can see who we are from Highway 29!

As I went back in the Education area of the Church I noticed some changes that were taking place. The foyer lost all of the senior pictures and now had a huge (for me at least!) building. Upon further investigation, I noticed that it said "tickets" on it. I had no idea what that meant until I almost got caught by Jeff and Marla Sanders... then Kylie and Cole came in. They were decorating for VBS. I hear that we are getting on board the Boomerang Express and heading to the Great Outback...and that the worship center may end up looking different next week. Hey, are you doing something in Vacation Bible School? If not see Joy...I hear that they are meeting after church today. Mark your calendar for June 8-12 in the evening. Thanks Marla (and the rest of the family) for doing some great decorations!

I'm glad you are here today. Will I see ya tonight at the concert? Bring someone with you. Hey! Do something good for someone this week! Chucky Church Mouse
